IN FLANDERS FIELDS

Poem: Lieutenant Colonel John McCrae

Music: Anthony Hutchcroft

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved, and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die,
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It features a key signature of one flat (Bb) and a 4/4 time signature. The tempo is marked as quarter note = 72. The score is divided into three systems. The first system contains the first line of the song, with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The second system contains the second line, with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The third system contains the third line, with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. Chord symbols are placed above the vocal line: A, F, Dmin, Amin, C, F, Dmin, Bb, Dmin, Csus, C. The piano accompaniment consists of a right hand and a left hand. The right hand often plays chords and single notes, while the left hand plays a steady eighth-note pattern.
